

COSHH Training

COSHH Awareness training is a course designed to give staff a greater insight into the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations 2002.

Who should attend

Any staff that comes in to contact with any chemicals deemed to be hazardous on a daily basis.

What will you learn

How to carry out a risk assessment, what procedures to carry out in case of an emergency, how to identify potential hazards.

Course content

- Regulations update.
- COSHH assessments - practical guidance.
- Procedures in case of emergency.
- Containment and control of risk.
- How to carry out a risk assessment.

Course duration

Half day (3 Hours)

Certification

All delegates will receive a certificate of attendance.

